Would You Lend a Hand to Help Us?

LifeVentures volunteers find meaning in their lives by assisting others. They participate in programs of mutual interest and help adults by sharing gifts of time and talent. Please mark your interests below in being a volunteer.

- Facilitator: Welcome, assist and introduce presenters (includes helping with equipment, being available for the presenter the entire class and eating lunch with the presenter(s), if they so choose). Record attendance on Tuesdays.
- Program Planning Committee: Solicit speakers to present various topics. Assist in development and content of Adventures in Learning sessions. Be willing to plan independently behind the scenes.
- Social Committee: Plan and coordinate social events, trips and special events. Help determine interest of members regarding social activities.
- Ways and Means Committee: Explore possibilities for expanding LifeVentures' financial support. Work as a group to plan and execute fundraising events.
- Help with Arrangements on Adventures in Learning Tuesdays (includes setting up for coffee, set-up of the lunch room, door greeters and more).

Other:

to the many volunteers who are helping to make this Adventures in Learning session a success.

Volunteers enable LifeVentures to keep its staff small but service levels high. And special thanks to East Heights UMC for providing us with a place to call “home.”
